

Observance of “National Girl Child Day” by Faculty of Education department – January 24, 2020

Observance of “National Girl Child Day” by the Faculty of Education department held on 24.1.2020. On this occasion, B.Ed students decorated the Wall Magazine related to the Girl Child and the Republic Day. The B.Ed Students also made campaigns to the nearby villages and informed the villagers about the initiative taken by the University in providing free coaching classes to teach English, Mathematics & Computer to the School going students of the nearby villages.

