ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The ICFAI University, Tripura has been established through an act of the state legislature (Tripura State Legislature Act 8 of 2004). The University is recognized by UGC under Section 2 (f) of 1956 and the university is empowered to award degrees under section 22 of UGC Act, 1956. The University is currently offering 52 (fifty-two) programs in Management, Commerce, Engineering, Law, Teacher education, Special Education, Physical Education, English, Yoga and Library Science etc. The University strives to provide quality education with an objective to provide the students with an appropriate combination of conceptual framework and practical insight into managerial, technological, legal challenges as well as business opportunities for grooming entrepreneurial initiatives. It also provides exposure to real business problems and situations through industrial visits to different business sectors, case-studies and industrial interactions.

BACKGROUND OF THE SESSION

Academic integrity is a fundamental pillar of quality research and scholarly communication. With the increasing emphasis on ethical research practices and originality in academic writing, it has become essential for faculty members and research scholars to be well-informed about plagiarism prevention and the responsible use of similarity-checking tools. Higher educational institutions and research organizations worldwide are adopting advanced technologies to ensure the authenticity and credibility of academic work.

Recognizing this need, the Centre for Doctoral Programs (CDP) and Scholar's Club of The ICFAI University Tripura, in collaboration with Turnitin India Pvt. Ltd., organized an onsite training program on 26 May 2026 at the Ground Floor Auditorium of the University. The program was designed to enhance participants' understanding of academic integrity, ethical research practices, and effective utilization of Turnitin tools in research and scholarly writing.

The training provided a platform for faculty members and research scholars to gain practical knowledge about identifying and preventing plagiarism, interpreting similarity reports, and adopting best practices for maintaining originality in academic documents. Through expert guidance and interactive discussions, the event aimed to strengthen the culture of responsible research and scholarly excellence within the university community.

The initiative reflects The ICFAI University Tripura's commitment to promoting high standards of academic ethics, research quality, and professional development among its faculty and research scholars.

REGISTRATION DETAIL

For the smooth conduct of the programme, an online Google Form was created to facilitate participant registration. The registration form was designed to capture essential information such as the name, designation, university/institutional affiliation.

REGISTRATION LINK OF THE SESSION: - <https://forms.gle/US3B935dmeNvKxv29>

A unique feature of the registration process was the inclusion of a specific field titled “Expectation from the Session.” This allowed participants to share their personal learning goals and areas of interest in advance, thereby enabling the organizers to gain valuable insights into what the audience sought to take away from the programme.

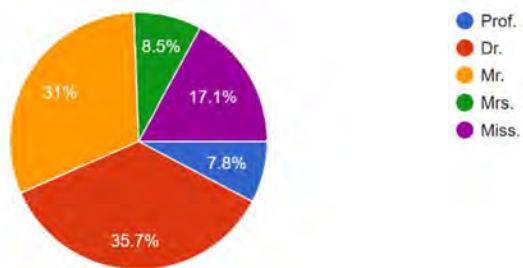

This innovative approach not only streamlined the participation process but also helped in making the session more interactive and need-based, as the speakers could align their discussions with the expectations of the attendees.

The training program witnessed enthusiastic participation from a diverse group of attendees, including faculty members, research scholars, and students from ICFAI University, Tripura.

In total, 129 participants registered for the event. The varied composition of the audience ensured vibrant discussions and an inclusive learning environment.

The active engagement of participants during the interactive session reflected their genuine interest in understanding the nuances of use of Turnitin. The healthy mix of offline and online attendees further highlighted the effectiveness of the hybrid model in extending the reach of the programme beyond the university campus.

DETAIL REPORT OF THE SESSION

The training programme on Academic Integrity, Plagiarism Prevention, and Effective Use of Turnitin Tools was conducted in a systematic and engaging manner, following the scheduled programme. The event provided faculty members and research scholars with valuable insights into ethical research practices and the use of technology to maintain originality in academic writing.

1. WELCOMING OF THE DIGNITARIES

The programme commenced with the welcoming of the dignitaries by Miss Dipanjana Acharjee, Research Scholar, The ICAI University Tripura. She warmly greeted the distinguished guests, faculty members, research scholars, and participants present in the auditorium. In her opening remarks, she highlighted the significance of academic integrity in research and introduced the objective of the training programme.

2. WELCOME ADDRESS BY PROF. (DR.) MADHAV CHANDRA GHOSH

Prof. (Dr.) Madhav Chnadra Ghosh delivered the welcome address and extended a cordial welcome to the resource person and all participants. In his speech, he emphasized the growing importance of maintaining ethical standards in academic research and publication. He noted that originality and honesty are the cornerstones of quality research and encouraged participants to make effective use of digital tools such as Turnitin to ensure responsible scholarly practices. He also appreciated the collaborative efforts of the Centre for Doctoral Programs (CDP), Scholar's Club, and Turnitin India Pvt. Ltd. in organizing the programme.

3. TECHNICAL SESSION BY MR. AKSHAY SHIVAPRASANNA SANANGI

The main session was conducted by Mr. Akshay Shivaprasanna Sanangi, Senior Onboarding Consultant, Turnitin India Pvt. Ltd. He delivered an informative and insightful presentation on academic integrity, plagiarism prevention, and the practical use of Turnitin tools.

During the session, he explained the concept of plagiarism, its various forms, and the potential consequences of academic misconduct. He discussed the importance of maintaining originality in scholarly writing and demonstrated how Turnitin can be effectively used to assess similarity in research papers, dissertations, and academic assignments. Participants were guided on interpreting similarity reports, identifying sources of matched content, and adopting best practices for citation and referencing. The session also highlighted the role of Turnitin in promoting ethical research practices and enhancing the quality of academic publications.

The presentation included practical demonstrations and real-life examples, enabling participants to gain hands-on understanding of the platform and its features.

4. INTERACTIVE SESSION

Following the technical session, an interactive discussion was held, providing participants with an opportunity to engage directly with the resource person. Faculty members and research scholars actively raised queries regarding similarity reports, acceptable similarity indices, citation practices, paraphrasing techniques, and institutional policies related to plagiarism.

Mr. Sanangi addressed the questions comprehensively and shared practical recommendations for improving academic writing while adhering to ethical standards. The interactive session facilitated meaningful dialogue and enhanced participants' understanding of the challenges and solutions related to plagiarism prevention.

5. ADDRESS BY PROF. (DR.) DHANANJOY DATTA AND VOTE OF THANKS

The programme concluded with an address by Prof. (Dr.) Dhananjoy Datta, Dean, Centre for Doctoral Program, The ICFAI University Tripura. In his remarks, he underscored the importance of academic honesty and responsible research conduct in higher education. He encouraged faculty members and research scholars to apply the knowledge gained from the session in their academic and research activities.

Thereafter, he delivered the Vote of Thanks, expressing sincere gratitude to the resource person, Mr. Akshay Shivaprasanna Sanangi, for sharing his expertise and valuable insights. He also thanked the university administration, the Centre for Doctoral Programs (CDP), Scholar's Club, faculty members, research scholars, and all participants for their active involvement and contribution to the success of the programme. The event concluded on a positive note with a renewed commitment towards promoting academic integrity and excellence in research.
