Sub: Extension of approval of affiliation to Faculty of Law, Institute of Chartered Financial Analysis of India University (ICFAI) Sadar, Tripura for imparting three year LLB as well as five year BBA LLB (Hons.) course with an intake of two sections of 60 students in each section.

Sir,

The Bar Council of India at its meeting held on 2nd May, 2015 considered the inspection report of the above mentioned college. After consideration the Council decided as follows: -

The Bar Council of India considered the inspection report submitted by the inspection team of the Bar Council of India. After consideration, the Council is of the view that for further extension of approval of affiliation to Faculty of Law, Institute of Chartered Financial Analysis of India University (ICFAI) Sadar, Tripura for imparting three year LLB as well as five year BBA.LLB (Hons.) course with an intake of two sections of 60 students in each course for three years i.e. from the academic session 2013-14, 2014-15 and 2015-16 with the following conditions: -

1. College should purchase books worth Rs. 1,00,000/- every year as per the rules of the Bar Council of India. The relevant rules is given hereunder: -

Minimum Library requirement: To start with, a Law Library shall have a set of AIR manual, Central Acts and Local Acts, Criminal law journal, SCC, Company cases, Indian Bar Review, selected Judgements on Professional Ethics and Journals with the back volumes for at least ten years and also such number of text books in each subjects taught during the period according to the minimum standard ratio of ten books for each registered students. For running integrated program, text books of such other subjects are also to be kept in the similar minimum ratio. The minimum investment in Library in each academic year shall be Rupees Fifty thousand for one stream and rupees one lakh for both the streams.

2. Teacher taught ratio should always be maintained as per 1:40.
3. Salary of the faculty members should be paid as per the provisions of Clause 22 Schedule III, Part IV of Bar Council of India Rules 2008.
4. That the Legal Aid Centre and minimum weekly class programme per subject should properly run under the provision as provided under clause 11 and 18 respectively of schedule 3 of part - IV of Bar Council of India Rules.

Compliance affidavit should be filed within six months in the office of the Bar Council of India.

However, deposition of fees is concerned, it is find that they have deposited only for one course while they are seeking approval for two courses. Thus as per Rule they should deposit one more fees.

The Committee further finds approval for these two courses only upto 2010-2011. The fee deposited is for a period of three years and hence to get approval beyond 2013-2014 they should deposit another inspection fee for both the courses. The aforesaid approval is only subject to deposit of the fees by the said University within a period of four weeks.

Further the Committee finds so far law faculty is concerned they are only three faculty members. As per rules for two courses the University must have at least six faculty members thus they should appoint three additional law faculty members on regular basis through proper selection within a period of three months with intimation to the Bar Council of India within the same period.

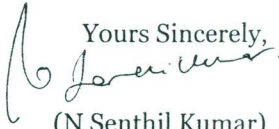

So far Principal is concerned it is not clear whether he is qualified or not. As per the Bar Council of India rules – Rule 16(1)(iv), Principal has to be a Professor in Law. It is quoted hereunder:

(iv) there is the separate Centres of Legal Education for the study of law under a separate Principal who should be qualified in Law to be a Professor of Law as stipulated under UGC and Bar Council of India rules,

The Institution should file affidavit in this regard within a period of six weeks if not holding the said qualification they should advertise and appoint the Principal also on regular basis. The institution must file affidavit within a period of three months.

College authorities are also required to apply to the Bar Council of India for further extension of approval six months in advance before expiry of the period of approval of affiliation granted by the Bar Council of India i.e. on or before 31st December, 2015 in respect of three year LLB as well as five year BBA LLB (Hons.) law course.

This is for your information and necessary action.

Yours Sincerely,

(N Senthil Kumar)
Asstt. Secretary
